Perry Johnson Registrars, Inc. Announces FREMONTA Corp. ISO 9001:2015 Certification

Troy, MI September 22, 2022 — Perry Johnson Registrars, Inc. is pleased to announce the certification of FREMONTA Corp. to the ISO 9001:2015 standard.

Based out of their Bay Area, California headquarters since 2018, FREMONTA Corp. is an industry leader in the development and production of sampling tools used in food safety applications. These innovative tools help decrease the cost to the producer while reducing stress on customers' quality teams through more automatic and less laborious quality control measures.

Committed to manufacturing the highest-quality and most cutting-edge products possible, FREMONTA has achieved the outstanding accomplishment of zero quality defects across the millions of MicroTally® Swabs produced and shipped for the past three consecutive years. They have also delivered 100% order fulfillment and ensured customer satisfaction. Given that admirable dedication to quality, pursuing ISO 9001:2015 certification with Perry Johnson Registrars, Inc. was a logical step.

Being ISO 9001:2015 certified means providing customers with confidence that:

- their primary focus is on the needs of customers
- their leadership is focused on establishing unity and direction
- team involvement and participation is emphasized
- processes are controlled as an approach to quality management
- leaders and management groups coordinate to achieve improved productivity
- increased performance is achieved through continual improvement
- decisions are made most effectively by thorough analysis and interpretation of data
- optimization of resources and costs is achieved by mutually beneficial supplier relationships

All ISO 9001:2015 certified businesses effectively demonstrate their continuing dedication to quality and customer satisfaction above and beyond the normal practices of uncertified organizations. By demonstrating this dedication through certification, the impressive reputation of FREMONTA Corp. is further emphasized.
